YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

The IRS has assigned you an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you an EIN so that we can identify your entity, accounts, tax returns, and documents. If you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

Taxpayers request an EIN for their business. Some taxpayers receive CP575 notices when another person has stolen their identity and is opening a business using their information. If you did not apply for this EIN, please visit www.irs.gov/innoprocedures.

When filing tax documents, making payment, or replying to any related correspondence, use the EIN and your name exactly as they appear at the top of this notice. It is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

A limited liability company (LLC) may file Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, and elect to be classified as an association taxable as a corporation. If the LLC is eligible to be treated as a corporation that meets certain tests and it will be electing S corporation status, it must timely file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation. The LLC will be treated as a corporation as of the effective date of the S corporation election and does not need to file Form 8832.
